CHURCH NEWS Dear Friends

Rather than just exploring ancient history, one of the aims of my recent sabbatical was to consider whether Celtic spirituality had anything relevant to offer in the challenges facing us in the 21st century. I'm glad to say that I found there were some inspirations for our times. One of these was the practice of the Celts of simple, sustainable living, in small communities, offering hospitality and healing.

We are fortunate in this area that we do live in small, caring communities but 'homelessness' can still be a problem – not necessarily literally but in the sense of not feeling 'at home' anywhere, of being excluded or unwelcome.

As the nights get longer and the days chillier, let's make sure we continue to welcome both friends and strangers into our communities, homes and hearts.

Ruth Hatfield

We look forward to welcoming you. Hollesley Players Committee

BAWDSEY PRIMARY SCHOOL We have started another exciting year at Bawdsey CEVCP School and we are giving lots of tours to prospective new parents for next September. With our recent Ofsted and receiving 'Good', we are very proud of our school and we have also just heard that we have won the Suffolk School Games Gold Sports Award for the fourth year and now this year we will be setting our sights on a Platinum award! We hope to be as successful with our Lego League entry as we were last Autumn, getting the 'Best robotics' award and to continue gardening at the Suffolk Punch Trust where we have just had a huge harvest for the children to share. Anyway it just leaves me to say a massive THANK YOU to the pupils, staff, parents/ carers, governors and wider community who helped us achieve these comments from Ofsted. 'Pupils describe the school as being a 'community' where everyone is kind and compassionate. Pupils feel very safe and are happy to come to school.' The school has a 'strong and positive ethos within which pupils are nurtured and extremely well supported. Consequently, they develop into mature and thoughtful individuals.' 'The school provides a wide range of experiences both within the school and through the local and wider community.

ARMISTICE 100 EXHIBITION a project to remember the men of Alderton, Bawdsey, Boyton, Capel St Andrew, Hollesley, Ramsholt, Shottisham and Sutton who returned from the Great War. Open daily 13 October to 30 November at Alderton Church. Opening Ceremony Saturday 13 October 2.30pm. Song of Praise Sunday 25 November 3pm. The exhibition will include information sheets on all the men who served in any branch of the armed forces between August 1914 and November 1918, with time allowances into 1919. The basis of the research is the 1911 Census, using Ancestry and Find my Past. Therefore there are names of men for whom no military records can be found, these names will be listed in the hope that information comes to light from visitors. Volunteers are needed to steward and to serve the food 3 & 4, 10 & 11 November. Further information from Judy Foulger, 01394 410254, Jenny Maddock, 01394 411228 or Michael Hatchett 01394 412052
